OSITUARY.

On the 29th ultimo, our community wer saddened by the painful announcement that CHARLIE REID was dead! Oh, how our arts ached, when we thought that the bright , light-bearted youth was gone forever But, no, not forever-he is "only gone before. We remember him whon a little boy, cheer fully assisting in the performance of duties his sunny smile and gentle voice, his manly conduct and polite manners, always bringing their own reward. twelve votes being the highest number cast for any person in opposition, and the Treasurer, Mr. Steele, staying in unanimously. So it seems our citizens are very well satisfied with the choice they made last fall, and have no disposition to change rulers "for slight and transient causes," or no cause at all. The Municipal Election

On Monday last, passed off with great quietness, was conducted with so much fairness throughout, and the result gives such universal satis faction, that it leaves us no room to comment. The grumblers, the soreheads the malcontents-the few who carped at the action of ournew Board -criticised their precipitancy in reducing salaries, dismissing police, etc., hid their "diminished heads," and we did not hear even one little squeak during the day. The opposition was evidently not well "organ"-ized. It was killed off most effectually on Saturday morning. Precisely what killed it we are not prepared to say, but we heard a friend suggest that it was probably the ordnance of our neighbors of the Mail-their heavy article giving the statistics-it was that that "did-the business." But no matter what it was, the result is most gratifying We are secure in the certainty of having a good Board for one year
